SUPERIOR COURT OF THE VIRGIN ISLANDS JUROR QUALIFICATION QUESTIONNAIRE

SECTION ONE: EXEMPTIONS AND EXCUSES
The Code of the Virgin Islands defines certain exemptions from jury service. If you fall within an exemption category listed below, you may be excused from jury service by the Court. If you wish to claim an exemption, please check the box corresponding to the appropriate exemption.
 ☐ Members in active service of the armed forces of the United States. ☐ Members of the fire and police departments of the Territory. ☐ Attorneys at law, ministers of the gospel or priests of any religious denomination, and practicing physicians and dentists. ☐ Elected officials or appointed officials not required to compete on a merit basis for their position. (Does not include regular government employees.)
Persons who have served as jurors within the preceding year in a Court in the Virgin Islands. The Court also considers certain excuses involving undue hardship caused by jury service. If you wish to offer an excuse which the Court may grant, indicate by checking the appropriate box below.
 □ Persons over 70 years of age. □ Persons who have legal custody of a child or children under the age of 10 years. □ Persons who have served as jurors within the past two years including District Court. □ School teachers in active service in an accredited school. □ Sole proprietors of businesses. (Please submit proof.) □ Persons enrolled fulltime in bona fide schools if service would be an extreme inconvenience.
